How to set-up and use Audiovisual (AV) equipment for effective presentations

Part of our work at the Prevention Research Center includes sharing our work in the form of audiovisual presentations. This hands-on presentation will focus on how to set-up and use the AV equipment both at UNM and out in the field. The topics covered include: the components of the combo, the different types of connections, using audio (speakers), using video, connecting to the internet, sharing your presentation and/or meeting using Skype, etc. If you have any questions or suggestions for topics you would like to have covered, please email Felipe Amaral at FAmaral@salud.unm.edu.

Presenter: Felipe Amaral, MA, Instructional Media Specialist

Date: Tuesday, March 15, 2016

Time: 12:00 noon to 1:00 pm
