

PRAISE FOR THE IMMORTAL LIFE OF HENRIETTA LACKS:

“Skloot narrates the science lucidly, tracks the racial politics of medicine thoughtfully and tells the Lacks family’s often painful history with grace.”

– Lisa Margonelli,
The New York Times

Rebecca Skloot’s

The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks

Join us Tuesday, June 5, 2012 for a facilitated discussion of the book from Noon to 1:00 p.m.

The book traces the history of the Lacks family and HeLa cells, which were taken (without permission) in 1951 from Henrietta Lacks, a poor African-American woman, and became one of the most important scientific tools/discoveries of the 20th century.

Facilitator: Courtney FitzGerald, LMSW. For directions and questions please email: CAFitzgerald@salud.unm.edu or call (505) 272-4462.

The book is available on amazon.com: <http://www.amazon.com/Immortal-Life-Henrietta-Lacks/dp/1400052173>, and at local bookstores.
