

The University of New Mexico
Prevention Research Center

Prevention Research Center Rio Grande Institute Noon Conference Series: Research Seminar

Journal Club Presentation – Recent Health Research

Presenters:

Jack Orozco, BS – “Resilience & Burnout”- the relationships between social change, community and self. Risk factors and coping practices for professional burnout, secondary traumatic stress and compassion fatigue.

Tabitha McKay, BS – “Body Mass Index and Waist Circumference Are Associated With Blood Pressure in Preschool-Aged Children”

Date: Friday, March 27, 2015

Time: 12:00 to 1:00 pm (Feel free to bring your lunch)

Where: Research Incubator Building (RIB) Commons
UNM Campus, 2703 Frontier NE, Albuquerque, NM 87131

For more information please contact Patty Keane at 505-272-4462 or by email at PKeane@salud.unm.edu